

America's Choice Learning Center
Picture Permission Form

Dear Parents:

Throughout the year, America's Choice Learning Center will take natural pictures of your children learning or at play during operational hours. Generally, these pictures of the children will be for private use inside the school or to send home to parents.

However, we ask your permission to publish or release the pictures we take for use on our website, brochures, or any other public display used to market or promote the school.

- I DO give America's Choice Learning Center permission to use these pictures of my child.

- I DO NOT give America's Choice Learning Center permission to use these pictures of my child.
